Plurality Claim-Holders in Cariboo.

There has been and still is a considerable degree of dissatisfaction both among miners in Cariboo, those who intend to go, and those who have returned, about individuals or companies monopolizing more claims than the law allows. The rumor of this state of things comes from so many different sources that one cannot well believe it to be without substantial foundation. If it be so, it cannot but be attributable to governmental mismagement, and a prompt and efficient remedy should be applied at once. If it is not so, the mouths of those mischievous persons who have been so successful in leaving such an impression on the public mind that claim monopolies exist in Cariboo, should be stopped at once. False or true, so long as such rumors remain uncontradicted, a public injury will be done. Almost every one-whether British or foreign-who goes into a mining locality will very naturally lay claim to every piece of ground that he can, with the design of working or selling, as circunstances induce him to think best. Such a characteristic is not peculiar to miners, for covetousness is older than the moral law, and is interwoven throughout the whole frame-work of society. So wherever there is the greatest prospect of sudden wealth there it will manifest itself the strongest We assume that claim monopolies exist in Cariboo. No one ever knew a mining locality in California or Australia in which it did not exist. So we cannot think Cariboo an exception to the general rule. Miners by common consent, from an instinctive feeling Lots for Sale in Victoria West. of justice and equal rights, have adopted the agrarian idea that if a man don't work his claim another may turn him out of it and go to work. Not only the miner, but every one else, sees and concurs in the necessity for such a doctrine as applied to mines, however much they might object if the same principle were applied to unoccupied privats land in this colony, or to the parks of would be in vain to urge that the owner, claimant or occupant does not make the latter cases in the colonial process of the colonial process of the colonial process. claimant or occupant does not make the land productive, and consequently any one else may squat on the land. It is quite the reverse in the mines. If a claim is rich, or supposed to be so, common consent says it must be prospected, worked, and rendered productive. If the owner, claimant or occupant neither prospects nor works it, the law and the miners say it is "jumpable." No dog-in-the-manger policy can be tolerated, and very properly too.

Lazy and avaricious people are voted public evils. Both in a well-regulated mining

Lazy and avaricious people are voted public evils. Both in a well-regulated mining community may be put out of harm's way, so far at least as holding claims and not working them, or holding more claims than the law allows. If such be not the case, the fault may be justly laid at the door of the government. It is the province of the latter to make laws for the benefit of the many; not of the few. It is alike the province and duty of government to execute such laws without fear, favor, or affection. Sufficient checks should be applied to prevent any evasion whatever of the law; and certainly there should be no connivance with evasion on the part of the authorities. We co, fess that we see no difficulty whatever in preventing inshould be no connivance with evasion on the part of the authorities. We confess that we see no difficulty whatever in preventing individuals or companies from monopolizing more claims than the law allows. There is no earthly necessity why the avariciousness of any one or more miners should exclude the same or a greater number of persons from any creek, ravine, guleh, bar, or mining locality in Cariboo, or any other portion of British Columbia. The machinery necessary to prevent monopoly is extremely simple. In the first place, according to the sary to prevent monopoly is extremely simple. In the first place, according to the Gold Fields Act, and the rules made in conformity thereto, any miner who does not take out a Free Miner's License is not protected in morbing his ship. in working his claim. Any one may jump it. Such a claim to a licensed miner's as though it were not claimed at all. He may though it were not claimed at all. He may jump it. As a matter of course then every miner pays his $5 for a license to mine anywhere for a year. A check on monopoly ought to begin with these licenses. Let them all be numbered from unity upwards. Let the Auditor or Treasurer issue them to the Gold Commissioner. (Such may be the case—but no matter.) When a miner comes to record his claim, let him show his heense. to record his claim, let him show his heense. The number of the Leense, and the name, would be all that the Commissioner would require to discover whether the bearer of the license had recorded more than one claim in his district. No matter what Commissioner his district. No matter what Commissioner issued the license, there could be no deception on that score, for no other Commissioner could issue the numbers that he did. If the miner had already recorded as many claims as the law allowed, the Commissioners er should refuse to record any more, except the applicant would cancel what had been recorded. Thus so far as any one district is rights. Hence all that is really necessary to put an end to the loud complaints about whilst they hold and offer to sell a dozen, is firmness and vigilance on the part of those entitled to hold one or two claims

To ADVERTISERS.

The number of postage stamps sold in the New York Post Office has been gradually increasing for the past two months, and is considered a sure indication of the revival of business generally. The amount now averages about $2,300 per day, and will no doubt soon reach, and probably exceed, the amount collected here for stamps before the rebellion. The daily sales then were at the rate of nearly a million dollars a year.

Bowin James.—This formerly renowned English barrister, recently admitted to the New York bar, is in hot water in that city, a motion having been made before the Supreme Court to revoke the license granted him to practice before the courts. The motion is based on the fact that he was ezpelled from the English bar.

LIEUT. WORDEN.—A five cent subscription is in progress through the Northern States for the benefit of Lieut, Worden, commander of the Monitor, who was blinded by fragments of shell in the terrific engagement with the Merrimac.

The latest excitement in England is the great Volunteer Review at Brighton. Among the excrises was the charge of 490 cavalry, (hussars,) who came on the volunteers at a three-quarters gallop and suddenly pulled up when but six inches from the nose of the infantry. This was to try the nerve of the volunteers.

The Montreal Gazette records the birth of "a quintette of girls" on the 20th of March, and trates that the mother, a French Canadian, is herself one of four, all still living. The five children are "doing well," and the same may be said of the mether.

NEGROES AT WASHINGTON .- Washington NEGROES AT WASHINGTON.—Washington is said to be swarming with negroes, a ragged and homeless multitude. The poor-house supported by the city, is full to overflowing, and scores of them were being daily turned away from that temple of relief.

Flavel said that if men should rise from the dead and read their epitaphs, some of them would think they had got into the wrong grave.

If the holder of a license recorded a claim in another district contrary to law, an abstract of the record containing the number of the license recorded sent every week by one Gold Commissioner to the other in a circuit, would prove an effectual check against evasion of the law in that way. If attempts were made in any way to evade the law, it would be easily discovered, and when found out if a proper punishment were inflicted wish certainty, mining claim monopolies would never be attempted. Later from British Columbia

The steamers Enterprise and Eliza Anderson have arrived from British Columbia since our last issue, bringing in the aggregate about 100 passengers and a small amount of treasure. The news continues discouraging from every locality of Cariboo except Lightning and Williams Creeks. On the latter stream four claims are being worked —Abbott's, Cunningham's, Steele's and Adams'. Abbott's and Cunningham's are reported to be taking out $5000 a day each. Adams had not cleaned up, and Steele was washing top-dirt.

On Lightning Creek several new claims have been prospected and promise well. "Big Brown's" company have completed their flumes.

Some 2000 men are reported bound down. They all say that if they possessed the means to "see the thing out," or could obtain credit, that they would pass the summer at Cariboo; but being nearly destitute of funds, and having no acquaintence with the store-keeper. They are companied. nearly destitute of finds, and having no acquaint-ance with the store-keepers, they are compelled to return. Several intelligent persons say that they applied for work on the roads, but were told that the contractors had help enough. There will be no demand for laborers at the diggings until about the 10th of July, when the claims will be ready for work. A number of Chinamen are rocking near Lillocet Flat and making from $2 to $4 a day to the man.

near Lillooet Flat and making from General Lillooet Hat and making from General to the man. The camels have started for Cariboo from Lillooet with heavy packs. One of them was killed by falling down a precipice near Pavilion Creek. He was pushed over by one of the younger camels that became frightened at some object on the trail. They are said to answer very well as pack arrivals.

trail. They are said to answer very well as pack animals.

It is computed that 6000 head of stock—cattle, horses and mules—have crossed Thompson River from Oregon since the season opened.

About fitty Salmon River miners have arrived overland at Lillooct. The Columbian says that John McGregor, a Canadian, is sick with the small pox at New Westminster.

The steamer Caledonia is making regular trips to and from New Westminister and Port Douglas. The portages on the Douglas route, recently overflowed by water, have been repaired, and wagons and stages are making regular trips over them.

Small pox has reached Harrison Lake, and is

Small pox has reached Harrison Lake, and is spreading among the Indians. Five or six cases have occurred. A Catholic priest has arrived in that district to vaccinate the natives there.

A large number of New Westminister town lots are advertised for sale by auction on the 29th of July, with an upset price of $100.

Bogus "CARIBOO CLAIMS."-Last winter Victoria was filled with a class of men, representing themselves as Cariboo miners, who took advantage of the excitement then existing with regard to the rich diggings on Williams Creek to offer for sale mining claims purporting to be situated in vari-ous localities at Cariboo. Some were on Light-ning and Grouse, many on Antler and Low-hee; and certainly not less than five hundred were the "very next claims" to Steele's, Abbott's, or Cunningham's on Williams Creek. In fact, to make room for half the "claims" put up for sale Cunningham's on Williams Creek. In fact, to make room for half the "claims" put up for sale "cheap" by "honest" miners, that stream must have been twice as long as it really is with bank, hill and bar diggings divided into sections certainly not larger than sixteen feet square. Many citizens bit readily at the gilded hooks, skillfully baited with "big prospects," and not a few swallowed both hook and bait in their pardonable eagerness to possess themselves of a "pile." All sorts of prices—varying from $50 to $15,000—were paid, and bills of sale and records furnished, if required, without number. Since the season opened it has been ascertained that many of those claims "never existed, save in the fruitful imagination of the unprincipled vendors, who procured records from the unsuspecting commissioner with the object to defraud Victorians in view; that over one-half never had a shovelful of dirt turned from the surface, let alone receiving a thorough prospecting; and that not more than one claim in five, as far as recent observations extend, will pay the expense of putting in a fume or digging a tail-race through them. In two claims on Williams Creek the purchasers have sunk shafts to the bed-rack and barely obtained the color for their pains and outlay, and many "bitten" parties are still searching for claims that are somewhere in imagination, but nowhere in reality. The number of claims sold in this town during the winter and early spring must have reached one hundred and fifty, and if more than twenty-five per cent, of that number are worth the trouble and expense required to reach them, it will be contrary to the opnion now generally entertained and expense required to reach them, it will be contrary to the opnion now generally entertained and expense required to reach them, it will be contrary to the opnion now generally entertained and expense required to reach them, it will be contrary to the opnion now generally entertained and expense required to reach them, BATTLE AT SALT LAKE. -There has been secession on a small scale among the Mormons. A few months ago one Morris, believing himself to be chosen by God to preach the gospel, gathered together adherents numbering about 1000 and withdrew to a settlement about thirty miles from Salt Lake city. Some of his followers stole Salt Lake city. Some of his followers stole horses, and warrants were procured for their arrest—but the service was resisted and the officers of the law assaulted. A writ from a U. S. Court was similarly received by the fanatics, when a detachment of soldiers was called out. A bloody fight ensued, in which Morris and several others were killed and many others wounded, when the law-breakers were quelled and the arrests made. Among the killed and wounded were several women and children, whom the "seceshers" refused to remove before the fight began.

DEATH OF A PIONEER.-We are pained to record the demise, at San Francisco, of our late esteemed fellow-townsman, James Bell, who expired of consumption on the 24th inst. Mr. Bell was a by birth, and was widely known and esteemed throughout California and these Colonies. He came hither in 1858 and established himself in the hardware business which he continued until failing health caused him to dispose of his stock and return to San Francisco, where his family reside.

PETITION .- A petition was circulated on Satur day asking his Excellency to revive the Court of Quarter Sessions in order that parties fined for misdemeanor in the Police Court may have an au peal. The recent fining of about twenty store-keepers by the Police Magistrate for sweeping dust into the streets has caused the movement. A number of signatures were attached.

FOURTH OF JULY .- The steamer Eliza Ander son will leave here on Thursday next for Olympia, W. T., with passengers who desire to take part in the celebration of the 86th anniversary of American Independence. We learn that the American Consul and several families have already engaged passage. The invitation of the Committee is extended to British subjects who may wish to join in the festivities of the occasion.

CORONATION DAY .- On Saturday the banks and public offices were closed and salutes fired from the men-of-war at Esquimalt, in honor of the coronation of Queen Victoria.

"BE SURE YOUR SIN WILL FIND YOU OUT "-About the first of April last there arrived in this town from Toronto, Canada West, in company ing, middle-aged man, named Obediah L. Adams, whose extravagant habits on the passage out won him the sobriquet from his fellow-voyagers of "King Cariboo." The "King" flourished here a short time, passing himself off as a wealthy South erner seeking investment for his capital, and final ly left for Cariboo in company with two or three Canadians. About one week after he had started for the diggings, an elderly gentleman, with snow-white hair and whiskers, richly but plainly attired, and having the appearance of a retired merchant also arrived here, waited on our Chief of Police, and stated the object of his visit, which was nothing more nor less than to arrest the "King" for the commission, eight months ago, of forgeries and frauds in New York city, amounting in the agaregate to a sum over $40,000. Every facility was afforded the stranger (who proved to be the celebrated New York detective officer Merritt) by our police, and officer Taylor was deputzed to accompany him to British Columbia in the capacity of an assistant, in case the arrest of the "King" was effected. The officers proceeded as far north as Eillooct, when, their funds giving out, they were compelled to return; but learned enough on the trip to satisfy Mr. Merritt that he was on the right track, although several days behind the rascal. Mr. Merritt took passage on the next steamer for California, where he borrowed sufficient money to procure a Cariboo miner's outfit, and two horses. He also obtained a requisition from the Governor of California for the apprehension of the "King," and took passage on the Pacific on her last trip for this port. In the meantime "King," Adams had visited his extensive domains, taken a look at the diggings—pronounced them a "humbug" (of course) and returned to this town nine days ago—thoroughly disgusted with British Columbia, and expressing his intention to leave immediately for Canada. He had no sooner set foot ashore, than he was "spotted" by our officers, and a close watch was had on his every movement until the Pacific, with the detective on board, arrived here. A consultation was held between Mr. Merritt, Sergeant Blake, and officer Tayler, and it was finally resolved that, as Adams had really taken passage on the Pacific for San Francisco, to save trouble and expense the papers should not be served until the steamer strived at the bay. At ten o'clock on Friday night, therefore, the detective having first seen his unsuspecting victim safe abourd the steamer, embarked himself, and as the vessel backed off from the wharf, the last seen of th also arrived here, waited on our Chief of Police, and stated the object of his visit, which was nothing more nor less than to arrest the "King" for the reached Toronto several days after Adams had left for this place, and ascertaining his destination, took the following steamer for this port. The result of the officers eight months of trail and anxiety is all that could be desired. He has secured the prize which he so long sought, and will no doubt receive a reward commensurately the timportant services which ne has rendered not only to justice but to society. The surprise of the "King of Cariboo," on his arrival at San Francisco to find himself in the clutches of the minious of the law, may be imagined. Never was a rogue more cleverly trapped.

NANAIMO.-The sloop Alarm arrived yesterday from Nanaimo. The steamer Labouchere was in port taking in coal, and was to start for the North on Saturday morning, at 10 o'cleck. The gun-boat Forward arrived on Friday from the North, having escorted the Hydahs above Cape Mudge. The Antelope, from Victoria, also arrived on Fri-day.

CAN'T GET RID OF THEM .- About thirty Indians have encamped at Hospital Point, Esqui-malt, and the naval officers accordingly tremble for the safety of their men. The police authorities are put to their wits' ends to know what to do with the natives. Living or dead they cause a world of

FROM INDIA .- By way of London and New York we have dates from Calcutta to April 16th, on which date Mr. Laing had introduced his "budget," which was deemed highly satisfactory.

on which date Mr. Laing had introduced his "budget," which was deemed highly satisfactory. A summary of this document says:

The financial year commences with a deficit of £6,000,000. The present estimates show a surplus of £900,000, although nearly £1,500,000 are to be spent on public works in excess of the estimate for the current year. The revenue of the coming year would amount to £885,000 over the preceding year, if calculated on the basis of taxation. The military expenditure is reduced to £12,200,000. The military expenditure is reduced to £12,200,000. The surplus is disposed of by increasing the education grant to £500,000, and by bringing the public assignment up to £4,250,000. The import duties on piece goods and yarns are to be reduced to 5 and 3½ per cent., respectively, with immediate operation. The paper duty is abolished. The rates on beer and claret are reduced ½, and on tobacco, to 20 per cent., and valorem. The income tax is reduced to 2 per cent, and as regards small incomes is abolished altogether. The total repeal of the tax is promised at the close of five years from its enactment. The cash balances for the year closed at £17,600,000.

The Langest City in the World.—A very erroneous idea is indulged in by many people in relation to the largest city in the world; many confidently asserting that London, or, as it is frequently termed, the Great Metropolis, is far superior both in size and number of inhabitants. But such is not the case. Jeddo, the capital of Japan, is, without exception, the largest and most populous city in the world. It contains the vast number of 1,500,000 dwellings and 5,000,000 of human souls. Many of the streets are nineteen Japaneseries in length, which is equivalent to twenty-two English miles. The commerce of Japan far exceeds that of any other city in the world, and the sea along its coast is constantly white with the sails of ships. "Their vessels sail to the southern portion of the empire, where they are ladened with rice, tea, seacoal, tobacco, silk, cotton, and tropical fruits, all of which find a ready market in the north; and then return freighted with corn, salt, oil, isniglass, and various other productions of the north, which have a market in the south."

COOKING WITHOUT FIRE .- Mr Kenney, of COKING WITHOUT FIRE.—Mr Kenney, of Rocksavage, has discovered and reduced to practice the art of cooking without fire. By a chemical agency, yet undivulged, he is able to heat and prepare for use every kind of vegetable product consumed by horses and cattle, preserving their nutritive and wholesome qualities even for a longer period than they are maintained by the ordinary method. The means employed are said to be cheap and simple, and the saving of labor very considerable.—European Times.

The wealth of England is estimated at £6,000,-000,000 sterling. Her income in the year 1850 was calculated at the enormous figure of $600,000,000 sterling.

DREADFUL MURDER IN IRELAND.—On the 28th, Gustave Thiebault, a French gentleman, who purchased an estate in county Tipperary, was shot dead on the road, within a very short distance of his own residence, at Rockwell, near Cahir. Mr. Row, a former proprietor of the estate, was assassinated under similar circumstances of atrocity just 15 years ago. It is reported that three persons have been arrested on suspicion, and that certain evictions have led to the perpetration of the dreadful crime. Another account says: Three brothers, named Halloran, have been arrested on suspicion. The deceased was shot dead, and a pitchfork was run into his body. A correspondent of the Freeman's Journal gives the following further details: "The Rockwell estate had been purchased by M. Charles Theibault, now an extensive merchant, settled in Dundee. After that purchase had been effected, M. Gustavo Thiebault came over to reside in his brother's mansion at Rockwell, and, in order to settle permanently in the country, he purchased for himself the adjoining property of Boytonrath, in the Landed Estates Court. Subsequently, in consequence of large arrears which had been due, legal proceedings were taken and an eviction took place. It is stated that, about two months since, a threatening letter had been sent to Madame Thiebault, threatening her husband with "the death of Roe," a former possessor of the estate of Rockwell, who had been murdered on the high road near his house about fifteen years ago. For that murder John Lonergan was executed, at Clonmel, with two brothers, Henry and Philip Cody, who had been condenned at the same assizes for the mur-of a relative of their ewn. According to the information that bas reached us, M. Thiebault, that disputes existed between the unfortunate gentleman and some of his tenantry, and that he was compelled, in consequence of the nonpayment of the tenants. An inquest was held on the body of M. Thiebault; and averdied of "Wiltim murder" against Thomas Helloran, one of the three brothers arrested on susp New Haven Clock Co.'s Manufacture, Hair Restorative "B. F. FISH. Photograph of Mr. Lincoln.—To say that he is ugly, is nothing; to add that his figure is grotesque, is to convey no adequate impression. Fancy a min six feet high, and this out of proportion; with long bony arms and legs, which are somehow anways in the way; with great ugged furrowed hands, which grasp you like a vice when shaking yours; with a long scraggy neck, and a chest too narrow for the great arm at its side. Add to this figure a head cocoanut shaped and somewhat too small for such a stature, covered with rough uncombed and uncombable hair, that stands out in every direction at once; a face furrowed, wrinkled, and indented as though it had been scarred by vitroil; a high narrow forehead, and, sunk deep beneath bushy eyebrows, two bright, somewhat dreamy eyes that seem to gaze through you without looking at you; a few irregular blotches of black bristly hair, it: the place where beard and whiskers ought to grow; a close-set, thin-lipped, stern mouth, with two rows of large white teeth, and a nose and ears which have been taken by mistake from a head of twice the For the Stickeen Gold Mines where beard and whiskers ought to grow; a closeset, thin-lipped, stern mouth, with two rows of large white teetin, and a nose and ears which have been taken by mistake from a head of twice the size. Clothe this figure, then, in a long, tight, badly-fitting suit of black, creased, soiled, and puckered up in every salient point of the facure (and every point of this figure is salient;) put on large. Ill fitting boots, gloves too long for the long bony fingers, and a fluffy hat, covered to the top with dusty puffy crape; and then add to all this an air of strength physical as well as moral, and a strange look of digrify coupled with all this protesquences, and you will have the impression left upon me by Abraham Lincoln.—Macmillan's Maguarine. 1200 MATS NO. 1 CHINA RICE;

NORTHERN BORN REBELS.—A Nashville letter says: Let me give the words of an eminert loyalist of this city. "Do you know, sir, that our bitterest, most unreasonable, unreleating secessionists here are matives of the North, mostly of New England?" Being of Southern birth and breeding object, I have many a time seen the charge confirmed, that Yankeeslavery defenders and slave drivers are the most ultra, intolerant, and cruel of their class. The Adjutant-General fixlpely was born in Ohio; Pemberton, in Pennsylvania; Whiting, Pike, Ruggles and Blanchard, in Massachusetts; French, in New Jersey. Massachusetts furnishes as many Generals for the rebel arny as either Alabama or Mississippi, and more than Texas, as many as Forida, Arkansas, and Missouri altogether, and lacking one of half as many as South-Carcilina. Of course these men were citizens of the South at the breaking out of the rebellion."

When the Prince of Wales was at Hebron he When the Prince of Wales was at Hebron he and his suite obtained permission to visit the cave of Macpelah, Abraham's burial place. They are the first Christians won have been allowed to enter it since the Crusades, nearly seven hundred years ago. Stanley says everything is kept in the most perfect order, and nothing could be more satisfactory than the state in which the tombs are preserved. Abraham, Isaac, Jacob, Joseph, Sarah, Rebecca and Lesh are buried there.

A YOUTHFUL ESCAPADE.—The San Francisco Alta publishes a biographical sketch of Colonel Ward, who has lately been placed in command of the Imperial troops by the Chinese Emperor, and among other incidents of his early life alludes to his shooting two men on shipboard, and seriously terms the act a "youthful escapade!" Should this colony be favored with the presence of youths addicted to such "escapades," hemp wo.ld probably go up in this market.

The Sea Beyond.

O life! O silent shore!

Where we sit patient—O great sea beyond,
To which we turn with solemn hope and fond,
But sorrowful no more:—
A little while and then we, too, shall soar
Like white-winged sea-birds in the infinite deep;
Till then, Thou, Father, will our spirits keep.
